What's the Cost?
The cost of attendance is a comprehensive planning budget that consists of tuition and fees, housing, meal plan, books, transportation and personal expenses. Of these components, the direct cost owed to Kent State University includes tuition and fees, on-campus housing and a meal plan. Amounts listed below represent average 2014-2015 academic year expenses and are subject to change for 2015-2016. Additional fees may include program fees and special course fees.
