

Study Away Cost of Attendance Increase Form 2009 – 2010

The Student Financial Aid Office develops standard allowances for educational expenses, which are used to determine a student's eligibility for financial aid. If you will incur additional expenses, as a result of your study away program*, and wish to be considered for a cost of education increase, complete the form and return it to Tara Jackson, Financial Aid Coordinator/Study Abroad, Student Financial Aid Office, 103 Michael Schwartz Center.

- * Examples of Study Abroad: Geneva Semester, Semester in Florence & Faculty Led Classes (i.e., spring break to Egypt). Students participating in the Undergraduate Architecture/Interior Design Florence Program or Fashion Design/Fashion Merchandising Florence Program DO NOT need to complete this form. The program coordinator will provide a roster of student's participating and adjustments to the cost of attendance will be done at that time
- * Examples of Study Away: Internships/classes that will incur additional costs, such as transportation and/or room & board costs. Students participating in either the Fall or Spring Semester of the New York City Studio Program DO NOT need to complete this form. The program coordinator will provide a roster of student's participating and adjustments to the cost of attendance will be done at that time.
